Taft, in Speech at Rockland,

Taft, in Speech at Rockland,

Maine, Indicates His Intention to Steer Clear.

PORTLAND, Me., July 26.—President Taft today put himself on record as subscribing absolutely to the principle that a president of the United States should not talk politics. He landed at Rockland this ten days' cruise.

Mr. Taft spoke to a large crowd from an automobile. He told of his appreciaten days' cruise.

Mr. Taft spoke to a large crowd from an automobile. He told of his appreciation of the welcome which has been accorded to his party and then "drifted" closer to a political utterance than at any other time on his trip. The harbor at Rockland, the big granite breakwater and the ships behind it had brought ship subsidy to the president's mind.

"They suggest to me," he said, "the importance of our constwise shipping. They also suggest the importance of improving our foreign shipping. All of which brings me so near to politics that I merely suggest it and leave it with you."

From Rockland the Mayflower dropped down to Casco Bay this afternoon and cruised this evening off this city.

The president will not come ashore at Portland. He will spend tomorrow at Biddleford Pool where Mrs. Taft's sister, Mrs. Louis T. Moore, has a summer place, and will be back in Beverly Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The president's ankle was vastly improved today and his ilmp was hardly noticeable.

and will be back in Beverly Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The president's ankle was vastly improved today and his limp was hardly noticeable.
